

“Cattle Crossing” sign (W11-4)

Upon written request of any owner of more than five heads of cattle, the department shall erect appropriate signs. Such signs shall be located at points agreed upon by the owner and the department, selected to give reasonable warning of places customarily or frequently used by the cattle to cross the roadway. No one owner shall be entitled to demand the placing of signs at more than one point on a single or abutting tracts of land.
